

What's Happening at St. Jude School

- National BETA Convention

Seventh grade student, Christine Palisoc, won the TN Jr. Spelling Division 1 Championship at the national convention held at the Opryland Hotel in Nashville.

- BEE Winners!!!!

8th grade student, Thomas Gaudin is congratulated by his teacher, Peter Hawkins, for winning the St. Jude School Geography Bee. Christine Palisoc, who won the TN BETA convention Bee, also won the St. Jude Bee. Both students advanced to their respective regional competitions.

- Open House

In the course of 3 events, St. Jude School welcomed dozens of parents interested in learning more about admission to the school. Parents had the opportunity to talk with teachers, view curriculum, observe classroom activities and participate in question and answer sessions. Additional information on school admission can be found at stjudechattanooga.org/schooo/admissions.htm.

- Catholic Schools Week

Catholic Schools Week was a celebration of the “Dividends for Life” that are gained by students and families who are part of the Catholic School community. St. Jude kicked off a week of celebration with a parish Mass, attended and serviced by students and teachers! Activities throughout the week included service Day projects, an Ice Cream Social, Reception for fellow Catholic school staff members, a Carnival and finally a Mass celebrated by Bishop Richard Sticka for all Chattanooga Catholic School students in grades three through 12.
